II. COURSE STRUCTURE

Course hours:

Lectures: 61

Seminar: 59

Special clinical practicals: 120

Total hours: 240

The Ob&Gyn course is an eight-week program with content organized in two different parts. During first four weeks all students have classroom activities at Klinika za ženske bolesti i porode, Petrova. Next four weeks students will be divided in groups. Each group will spend a week at one of the four Units of Klinika za ženske bolesti i porode, Petrova and at Klinika za ginekologiju i porodništvo KB Sveti Duh and Klinika za ženske bolesti i porode KB Merkur, where they are going to have practicals. After a week they will rotate to another Unit according to given schedule. It is expected that students are prepared for the seminars.

Students' office in Klinika za ženske bolesti i porode, Petrova 13, coordinates the required administrative backup for the course. For more information, send an e-mail to: anita.horvatin@mef.hr

VI. LITERATURE

1. Obstetrics by Ten Teachers, Phil Baker (ed). Hodder Arnold; 18 Ed 2006, ISBN-10:0340816651
2. Gynaecology by Ten Teachers, Stanley G Clayton (Autor), Ash Monga (Editor), Hodder Arnold; 18 Ed, 2006, ISBN-10:0340816627

It is very useful for an overview, but should not be the sole source of a student's reading.

3. Danforth's Obstetrics and Gynecology, Ronald S. Gibbs, Wolters Kluwer/Lippincott Williams & Wilkins, 10th edition, 2008.

It contains more than we expect you to learn during your 8-week rotation. Use the Curriculum Outline to direct your reading. Selected chapters.

4. notes from lectures and seminars
