

The University of Zagreb accepts the BioMedical Admissions Test \(BMAT\) for applications to its Medicine in English programme.

BMAT is an admissions test for applicants to Medicine, Biomedical Science and Dentistry courses at certain universities around the world. BMAT gives you the chance to show your potential to succeed on a demanding science-based university course.

The test takes place on in February in test centres in many countries. Visit the BMAT website to find out more about the test, where you can take the test, and how to register.

Preparing for BMAT

Visit the BMAT website for a range of free resources, and do the following:

- Read the BMAT preparation guide for advice on how to prepare, and the BMAT test specification to familiarise yourself with the test format.
- For Section 1, read the BMAT Section 1 question guide to find out how to approach the different question types.
- For Section 2, access the BMAT Section 2: Assumed Subject Knowledge guide, which covers in detail the topics that can be assessed in BMAT.
- For Section 3, read the marking criteria and sample essays to understand how responses are marked.
- And, most importantly, answer some BMAT practice papers for each section under timed conditions.
