

OIB number

Shortly after arriving in Zagreb, you should get your national identity number osobni identifikacijski broj (OIB= personal identification number). You'll need this for many purposes including registering for classes in September.

You can get OIB at Tax Administration, Avenija Dubrovnik 32, or by the Police, when registering your temporary residence in Croatia for the first time.

You can get it online prior to arriving to Zagreb.

You should go to this website:

<https://www.porezna-uprava.hr/en/Pages/SingleNews.aspx?NewsID=7&List=News> and read the instructions.

Follow the link in the text - "Pišite nam".

After clicking on "Pišite nam" – you should select the topic and sub-topic "Zahtjev za određivanjem i dodjeljivanjem OIB-a" (Application for the determination and assignment of the Personal Identification Number (OIB)).

Printscreens of this step (contact web form and selecting the topic and subtopic) are linked to this text.

Under Područni ured you have to choose Zagreb.

You will need to fill out the form.

and upload the documents (the form, and a copy of passport or ID card) . After you upload the documents you should submit the request by clicking Posalji.
